

CHINA WATCHER

The race for technological leadership, between cooperation and competition

9th Maria Weber Annual Conference

Milan, 28 May 2019

ISPI - Palazzo Clerici, Via Clerici 5

9.00am Registration

9.30am Opening session

Vincenzo PETRONE, General Manager, Italy China Foundation
Ettore SEQUI, Ambassador of Italy to China (Skype)

10.00am The competition for technological supremacy and the role of China in global scenarios

Moderator: Alessia AMIGHINI, Co-Head, Asia Centre, ISPI

Paolo GIUDICI, Financial Technology Laboratory, University of Pavia and Coordinator of the European Horizon2020 project "FIN-TECH: Financial supervision and Technological compliance"

ZHANG Ge, Researcher, Institute of Data Science, National University of Singapore; Visiting Scholar, Humboldt University of Berlin and Zuse Institute, Berlin

Axel BERKOFISKY, Co-Head, Osservatorio Asia, ISPI

11.30am The impact of Made in China 2025 on Italian stakeholders

Moderator: Filippo FASULO, Director, CeSIF, Italy China Foundation

Valeria NEGRI, Head, Assolombarda Research Centre

Alessandro BRUNO, Head of International Platform APAC Region, Comau Livio MIGNANO, Head of International Network, Sace

1.00pm Closing

Working languages: Italian and English

(*) The Conference is promoted within the Institute's Programme on China supported by Pirelli and in the framework of "Focus Cina", an ISPI and Italy China Foundation project on business opportunities in China. On the occasion of the event, the ISPI Report "China's Race to Global Technology Leadership" by Alessia Amighini will be published, available online on the ISPI website.